The port of the helmet WILL BE required for certain animations, under penalty of being able to take part in it.

I commit myself evolving on the skiable field of the station of "Les Angles" with vigilance, courtesy, observance of the regulation particularly speed control of the trajectory.

I authorize the exploitation, throughout the world, free of charge, of all or part of the shots and recordings representing my image on all supports, in all formats and in any media (press, television, video, broadcast on the Internet, advertising, exhibition, graphic publishing, etc.) for an indefinite period, and I further authorize the photographer(s/cameramen) to make any change in framing, color and density during reproduction.
